Rosie Elia has over 20 years of corporate law experience, with the last decade focused on supporting the not-for-profit sector. She has expertise in incorporation, amendments, dissolution, continuance, and revival of organizations under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act and the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010. With a background in large national firms, Rosie provides practical solutions for corporate structuring, governance, and compliance.

Rosie manages extra-provincial registrations, fundraising licenses, and corporate filings such as annual returns, notices of change, and business name registrations. She is skilled in drafting and amending by-laws, securing federal name reservations, and conducting corporate searches. Additionally, she prepares annual general meeting minutes and related documents, ensures organizations maintain accurate corporate records, and supports charities with registration applications and regulatory compliance, including filing NIL T3010 returns. Rosie works closely with clients, agents, and government agencies to streamline operations and reduce administrative burdens.
