Scott Turner is a highly experienced commercial litigator with decades of practice. His knowledge spans contract disputes, insolvency-related litigation, creditors' remedies, shareholders' and partners' disputes, estates litigation, insurance litigation, real estate disputes and professional responsibility. Scott has appeared in all levels of court in British Columbia and beyond. While a skilled litigator, Scott's primary focus is resolving disputes efficiently, often settling cases before trial. He also has experience in arbitration and mediation, offering clients comprehensive legal solutions tailored to their needs.
