Sonia has been working as a Family Law Clerk since 2010. With a natural compassion for others, she is dedicated to guiding clients through the challenging transitions of separation and divorce. By providing support and reducing stress during difficult times, Sonia aims to help clients reach resolutions that enable them to move forward and begin a new chapter in their lives.

With over 13 years of experience as a Family Law Clerk, Sonia has developed a deep understanding of Family Law Rules and court procedures. She takes pride in being personable and involved throughout the entire process, working closely with lawyers to ensure a personalized experience for each client. Sonia focuses on adapting to the unique needs of each client, providing tailored support every step of the way.

Prior to joining Miller Thomson, Sonia worked at a fast-paced family law firm, assisting clients with high-conflict cases involving support claims, extensive financial disclosure, property division, decision-making, and parenting time.
