Stéphanie Pépin is a partner in the tax group of our Montréal office, focusing on tax planning and tax litigation. Stéphanie is recognized for her understanding of the business environment and her in-depth knowledge of complex tax issues. She advises both individuals and companies on structuring their affairs in a constantly evolving legal environment, with a focus on tax optimization and compliance with current laws. Her analytical and strategic approach enables her to find solutions to the most complex tax problems while minimizing risk for her clients.

Stéphanie is a regular speaker and writer on tax-related topics, sharing her knowledge with her peers and helping advance discussions on contemporary tax issues. Her practice is characterized by a close attention to changes in tax legislation, enabling her to provide advice that is always up-to-date and relevant.

As a business partner to her clients, Stéphanie ensures that she understands their long-term objectives and provides them with tailor-made solutions in line with their vision and specific needs. In addition to her tax planning proficiency, Stéphanie has extensive experience in tax litigation, representing clients before tax authorities and courts with professionalism and rigour.
