ADMISSION AU BARREAU

Ontario, 2014

FORMATION

- J.D., University of Toronto Faculty of Law, 2013
- B.A., University of Toronto, 2010

Thomas Sanderson's advice on municipal and planning law matters is both thorough and practical. With a wealth of experience acting for municipalities, businesses and individuals, Thomas handles a broad range of land development and municipal matters, and related tribunal and court proceedings. His practice covers by-laws and building standards, heritage, water infrastructure, business licensing, property standards, and freedom of information. He brings compelling and strategic advocacy to disputes before the Ontario Land Tribunal, and has extensive experience in prosecution and civil litigation on municipal, construction and Building Code matters.

Thomas maintains an active community presence, co-chairing an active Kitchener neighbourhood association and taking on volunteer roles on community working groups dealing with housing matters and charitable grants.

Thomas is an active member of the Waterloo Region Law Association, Ontario Bar Association, and Law Society of Ontario. He participates in municipal and land development events and conferences, and has published on related developments in his ever-changing practice area.
