Ugo Mbamalu is an associate in the Social Impact Group at Miller Thomson LLP, focusing on legal matters for charities and not-for-profits. He advises clients on incorporations, charitable registrations, corporate governance, tax, and regulatory compliance. Ugo is dedicated to helping organizations carry out their charitable activities both in Canada and internationally. His client-focused approach tailors legal services to the specific needs and goals of each organization, ensuring they operate effectively within legal frameworks. Ugo's practice aims to support the unique missions of charities and not-for-profits through practical, comprehensive legal guidance. Before joining the firm, Ugo worked as a Legal Operations Officer at a logistics and warehousing company in Toronto and gained experience as an associate at law firms in Nigeria, focusing on business law, tax advisory, and dispute resolution.
