Vanessa is Cree and a member of the Wuskwi Sipiik First Nation in Manitoba. She returns to Miller Thomson as an articling student after completing summer placements with the firm in both 2023 and 2024.

Vanessa earned her law degree from the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia (UBC). During law school, she was actively involved with the UBC Indigenous Law Students' Association (ILSA) and served as a student liaison with the Aboriginal Lawyers Forum. Vanessa also volunteered with the Law Students' Legal Advice Program (LSLAP), where she provided free legal services to low-income individuals in Metro Vancouver.

Prior to law school, Vanessa worked in the federal health sector, focusing on cannabis licensing and regulation. She supported stakeholder engagement initiatives, including community outreach and consultations with licence holders. Her work aimed to enhance regulatory communications and promote equitable access to the federally regulated cannabis industry.
