Licensed in Alberta and Washington, Veronica Choy is a one-stop lawyer for corporate clients looking to navigate immigration needs in both Canada and the United States. With a focus on applications for work permits, visas, permanent residency, and citizenship, Veronica collaborates with companies to facilitate the movement of personnel across international borders for global business growth. She draws upon her vast knowledge of immigration programs and categories to offer solutions and strategies to address a diverse array of business needs. She also serves as a strong advocate to government immigration authorities on behalf of her clients, and advises both individuals and companies on immigration compliance matters.

A dynamic speaker, Veronica's diverse speaking engagements showcase her proactive approach to sharing updates on the ever-changing immigration rules and categories in Canada and the United States, and offers practical solutions on how companies can optimize their practices to best facilitate international movement for their personnel.

Veronica is a longstanding member of the Immigration and Citizenship Section of the Canadian Bar Association and the American Immigration Lawyers Association. Her accolades underscore her experience and commitment in her field, and include recognition under the Canadian Legal Lexpert Director and in The Best Lawyers in Canada – both for her reputation in Immigration Law.
