EDUCATION

- LL.L. (Civil Law), University of Ottawa
- B.A. in International Development and Psychology

Yuan Luo practices corporate law, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions. She advises businesses at all stages of their life cycle, including incorporation, organization, and corporate governance. Yuan prepares and reviews shareholders' agreements, participates in corporate reorganizations, and drafts or negotiates a variety of commercial contracts. She also supports clients in their day-to-day operations and strategic decision-making.

In the context of mergers and acquisitions, Yuan is involved in all aspects of the purchase and sale of businesses. She conducts due diligence, prepares due diligence reports, and drafts or negotiates letters of intent and share or asset purchase agreements. She also assists with transaction structuring and coordinates work with other professionals involved.

Yuan advises clients on governance and compliance matters, including regulatory and organizational requirements. She develops and reviews internal policies and assists directors and officers in fulfilling their obligations and implementing sound governance practices.

In recent years, Yuan has delivered corporate law training to mid-market companies and co-authored articles on technology compliance and consumer protection.
