Yves Rocheleau is a seasoned M&A, corporate and commercial lawyer. He assists companies through all stages of their development, including incorporation, corporate structuring, shareholder agreements, financing, equity investments, acquisitions, and dispositions. His experience in drafting and negotiating various commercial agreements and in resolving shareholder disputes is highly sought-after.

Having started his career at a large Toronto firm, Yves is a member of both the Ontario Bar Association and the Barreau du Québec.

Yves regularly advises leading companies, primarily in the manufacturing and service sectors. He also assists business owners with succession planning and is a frequent speaker on the subject at conferences. He has handled major executive buyout cases to great acclaim.
